The Endless Supply of God

Exodus 35:4-9; 36:1-7

For the Week of November 11th, 2018

1. What insight, principle, or observation from this weekend's message did you find to be the most helpful, eye-opening, or troubling?
2. What was the first thing you felt skilled at? Who taught you how to do it?
3. When you were younger, did you struggle to share your stuff? Why or why not?
4. When have you felt there was no supply of something you needed? How was the situation resolved?
5. We all think of ourselves as generous, but in God's eyes, what is truly generous?
6. God created the universe. What does God's endless supply say about His level of generosity? Why should that affect how generous we are?
7. What belief do you struggle with when it comes to transformational generosity? (Supply, liberty, get to give, steward). Why? What do you want to do to overcome barriers you have with transformational generosity?
8. Out of your wealth (good health, time, money, skills), how are you teaching those around you to be generous? How are you teaching your family? How are you teaching your friends?
9. Of the four principles of transformational generosity mentioned Sunday, which do you want to grow in? (Supply, liberty, get to give, steward)
10. Spend time asking God to grow the group and you individually, and pray for opportunities to act on what you are learning about transformational generosity.
